INTRAPersonal IMPROV

w/ Thom Rutledge & Brian Lutz

One fool-proof method for driving ourselves crazy is to attempt to be singular in nature, to have only one opinion or one feeling about something or someone. Knowing this one thought and/or this one emotion, I call myself sane. THEN WHY DO I FEEL SO CRAZY?

The nature of consciousness is multiple, not singular. We all talk to ourselves; we us just need to get better at it. -from Simple Truth by Thom Rutledge

Join Brian and Thom to confront the MYTH OF SINGULARITY head on – directly, honestly & with a sense of humor. Might as well have some fun while we’re here, right?

INTRAPersonal IMPROV is a 3-HOUR ZOOM WORKSHOP

SATURDAY • MAY 7, 2022 • 10:00 – 1:00 PM PACIFIC TIME
